

What was the Yearly Debt Percentage Increase for each year compared to the previous year?

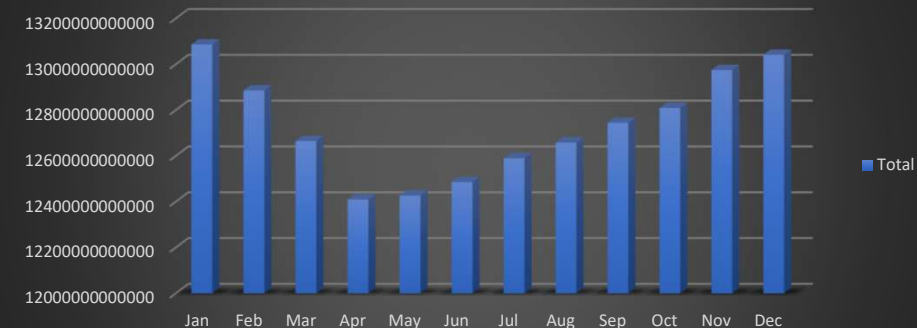

Yearly Debt Percentage Increase

For the Total Public Debt Outstanding, in years 2016-2019, the average increase was around 5%. In 2020, we see a large spike which was almost certainly caused by the Global Pandemic responses in USA.

Which months historically have seen the highest/lowest increases in Total debt?

Average of Total Public Debt Outstanding

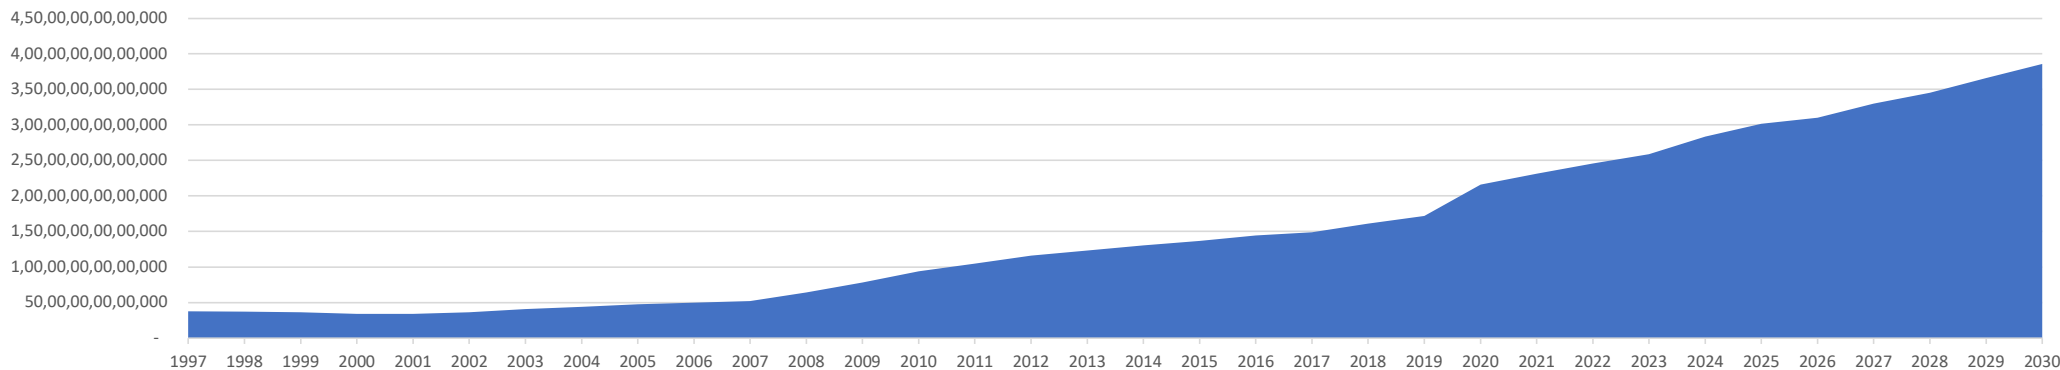

Months (Record Date)

Summary/Conclusions

Highest debt increases historically occurs in the month of January, February, November and December.
Lowest Debt Increase months historically occur during the month of April, May, June and July
Summary - During High-Months in USA, people historically spend lot more money buying gifts for others. And in Summer - people do not spend money in high amount and tend to spend less during these low-months.

What was the Yearly Debt Percentage Increase for each year compared to the previous year?

Chart Title

Summary/Conclusions

From 1997 to 2007 we saw an increase of about 1 Trillion in Publicly held Debt.
From 2008 to 2019, Debt increased from 6 Trillion to 17 Trillion.
From 2020 to 2023 - Debt increased from 21.5 Trillion to 25 Trillion.
From 2024 to year 2030 the projected debt increase will be 27 Trillion to almost 40 Trillion.